

Link News Letter

L i s t e n

Nature

Hello everyone, welcome to our 6th edition of our newsletter. We have had a fantastic time looking at all your amazing photos, videos and love catching up on all your exciting news! Thank you again for all your commitment in sending them to share with your friends. There are also links to click onto access videos and information.

This week we have been focusing on listening skills. What have you enjoyed listening to this week? We like listening to all of you communicating with us.

Well done to everyone for researching nature in the community this week. We love your photos!

Link News Letter

Holly and her family celebrated her Dad's birthday this week. Holly helped to blow out his candles, how many candles can you see? They all sang "Happy Birthday" 3 times! We love listening to your singing Holly and have missed it very much! Click the link and listen to Holly singing the alphabet song.

https://youtu.be/jqMnuDI_loA

Holly's Dad had a Star Wars theme and Holly had great fun with the light sabre. Does anyone know the star wars theme tune? Click the link and have a listen

https://youtu.be/_D0ZQPqeJkk

Link News Letter

Jimmy's Challenge

This week Jimmy challenged the class to take part in activities to do with nature. Great idea Jimmy!

Jimmy has had lots of fun this week doing his 30 day nature challenge. First of all he searched for and picked some wild flowers from the garden. Jimmy then used a HUGE book to press them, bet that was heavy! Look how beautiful the finished picture is. Lovely work Jimmy!

Link News Letter

Look at Timothy in his tractor, working hard as usual on the farm. Who identified the tractor sound in our nature walk story? Click the link below to have another listen.

https://youtu.be/nh_w5T56Px0

You have also been working hard on Jimmy's nature challenge. You found some flowers, stones, plants and cones for your very own nature table. Brilliant work Tim!

Link News Letter

Mason enjoyed watching our 14US friendship massage story on our website this week. Did you enjoy seeing all your friends and “listening” to everyone's voices and sounds?

Mason has also been busy cooking this week too! He has been using his motor skills to stir ingredients and make some flapjacks! They look absolutely delicious, you could enter the Great British Bake off! Click the link below to hear the bake off theme tune.

<https://youtu.be/VSVMcM9uA24>

Link News Letter

Jack has been very busy this week. He has also been working on the nature challenge and has been watering his beautiful plants, to help them grow big and strong. Listen to the sound of the water and click the link below.

<https://youtu.be/eY1bjj1yQVQ>

Jack has also been on a nature hunt and found lots of flowers, leaves and feathers. Well done Jack! After all that hard work he chilled out and enjoyed a picnic with Eileen and June.

Link News Letter

Fern has been out and about in her community this week to a local field to feed the ponies! We know you like being out in the fresh air Fern and feeling the breeze on your face. How many ponies did you see? What did they sound like? Have a listen and click the link <https://youtu.be/avcRRclRnbY>

What food did you feed them? Maybe it was a nice crunchy apple, or it could have been some juicy carrots. We bet they enjoyed seeing you Fern!

Link News Letter

Look at Jessica's fingerprint picture! She has found a different way of exploring "Nature" What a beautiful apple tree! We can see lots of apples on your tree Jess, can everybody count them? If they fall off the tree, what sound will the apples make when they reach the ground? Listen to the sound of the crunchy apple and click the link

<https://youtu.be/1nNXaI04SEg>

Can you remember this fun song we have listened to at school, have a dance along!

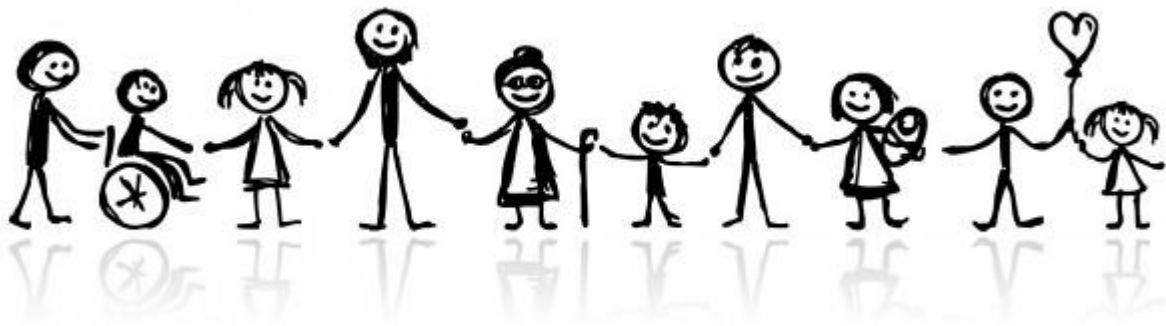

<https://youtu.be/POv-3yIPSWc>

Link News Letter

Megan has enjoyed “listening” to our Chadsgrove song this week. She was especially excited and happy to see Kyle and Kate on the video clip. Did you do some dancing Megan? It’s a lovely song and you can all see it via this link

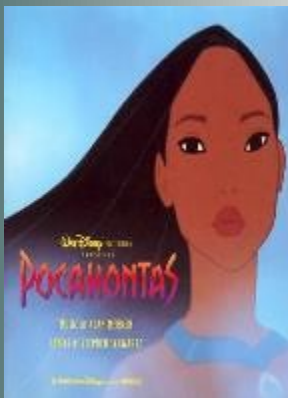

<https://youtu.be/31WS0D9ivws>

Link News Letter

Kyle has been learning new phrases this week. His favourite is “Ready, steady go!” Maybe he is preparing himself to do a sports day! He is also saying “Time for bed!” Maybe after all your sports and singing it’s tired you out!

Kyle is enjoying watching and singing along to Pocahontas on the television and also singing Olaf’s song from Frozen. Keep on singing Kyle, we miss listening to you sing! If you want to join in with Kyle, click the links...

<https://youtu.be/O9MvdMqKvpU>

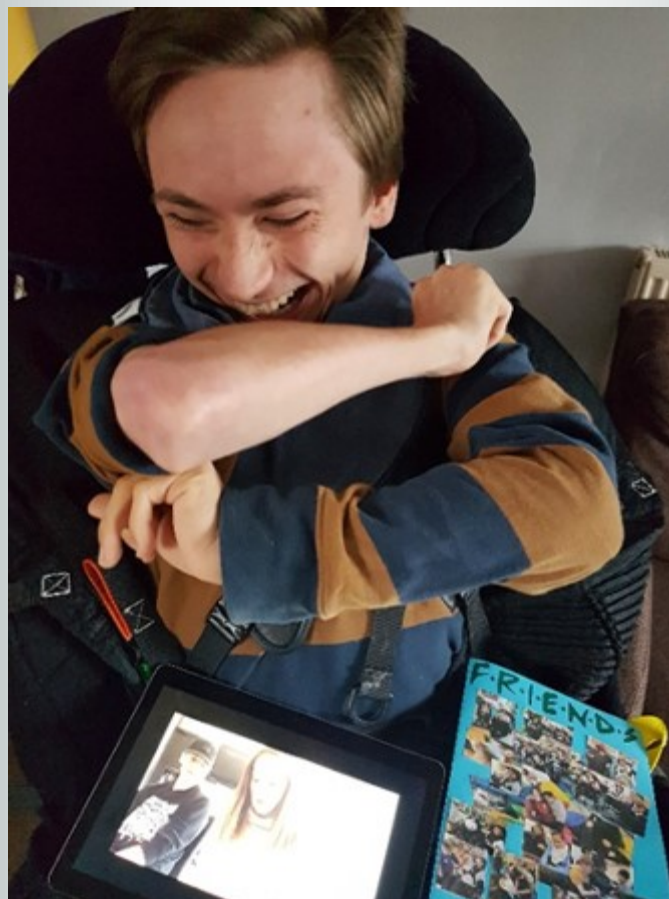

https://youtu.be/rnEB2F_v_cE

Link News Letter

We hope you have all received your “friendship” card and a rainbow friendship bracelet from all of us in 14US. We hope you liked it. Mason looked very pleased with his.

Have a look at Ria making the bracelets

<https://youtu.be/ecV7hPyeNjU>

Link News Letter

Special Talents

Timothy has been using his musical talents to play on his guitar, wish we could hear you Tim! Maybe you're playing the star wars theme for Holly and her family.

Take a look at our talented musicians in class and listen to their creative music

<https://youtu.be/jEY-5egfs30>

Link News Letter

Thank you

A big thanks to everyone at the college for letting us join in with a sensory story zoom session this week!

The story was 'Going to the Beach' read by Leigh, signing by Claire and technical effects by Matt. A great team effort and it was lovely to see the familiar faces of pupils from college.

Jimmy and Jack represented 14US this week and joined in with their props brilliantly and listened carefully to the story and everyone's voices. Well done to you both.

Pictures will follow in next weeks edition and another zoom session will be arranged soon.

Very exciting!

We are look forward to our next link activity very soon.

Bye for Now