

Always check your change

Infographic

When you buy something in a shop, any money they give you back after you have paid is called 'change'. When you count it and see if it is the right amount, this is called 'checking your change'.

Always check your change

Infographic

When you buy something in a shop, any money they give you back after you have paid is called 'change'. When you count it and see if it is the right amount, this is called 'checking your change'.

