

CHADSGROVE CHRONICLE

STAY ALERT, CONTROL THE VIRUS, SAVE LIVES.

WELCOME TO ISSUE 3 OF THE CHADSGROVE CHRONICLE IF YOU HAVE ANY LOCKDOWN PHOTOS YOU'D LIKE INCLUDED PLEASE EMAIL TO STEPH DALEY
SJD78@CHADSGROVE.WORCS.SCH.UK

Charlie enjoying VE day with his family.

You look like you thoroughly enjoyed your VE day celebrations Ryan.

We can see how hard you have worked on your Union Jack Dylan, you should be very proud. We will make sure Mrs LloydLangston sees your photos.

What a lovely day you looked like you had Ethan,
we particularly like your hat.

We love your home made bunting Ania and we've spotted your NHS rainbow on your window and your Tshirt.

Lovely face painting Madison, the weather was so hot and someone has been very busy making cakes.

Mason we are loving your Union Jacks, you look very patriotic. Your afternoon tea looks delicious.

Brilliant bunting Megan

You’ve worked really hard on your bunting too Jess. Well done.

Katie enjoyed the music, fish and chips on the driveway and socializing from a distance with the neighbours.

Sam enjoyed the street party and his Mom’s Victoria sandwich.

Finnan’s NHS rainbow, we love it Finnan.

A very thoughtful poster Amelia.

WE love your banner Fern.

Jimmy what tasty looking scones, you just need some jam, cream and a pot of tea.

VE day sing along for our college. Can you spot Mrs Rattley?

Chadsgrove Chronicle
Art Gallery 2

Well done to all of Chadsgrove's young artists. Keep on creating and send a picture of your work to me,
Mrs Lloyd-Jones
jll63@chadsgrove.worcs.sch.uk
Your work may appear in our next gallery!

SCIENTIST OF THE WEEK

Huge well done to
Cerys Giles

who has not only been busy doing lots of experiments but writing up all her findings too. She has been made a lava lamp and fireworks in a glass.

Well done Cerys!

Remember to check out the science section on the website for some home learning ideas, and please keep sending your photos to us (Mrs Hockey: aer53@chadsgrove.worcs.sch.uk) we really do love seeing what you've been up to! Happy Experimenting ☺

Chadsgrove Weekly Fitness Challenge
Week 5
The Bucket Challenge

Can you throw a ball or object into a bucket. How many can you score out of 10 throws?
Good luck
Post your pictures on twitter
Chadsgrove_PE@ChadsgroveP

Alexis doing her daily exercise on the running machine. Be careful Alexis not too fast.

Ryan doing his daily exercise in his walker, keep up the good work Ryan.

It was a very special day, for Jayne, over the Bank Holiday as it was her birthday. Happy birthday Jane! Hope you had a lovely day and were spoilt by your family. What a shame you missed celebrating at the palace because of lockdown. Never mind. There's always next year!

Amy celebrated V E Day by baking some banana bread. Looks delicious Amy! Looks like Iris agrees!

Cheers everyone!

Ellie Taylor's daughters have been busy decorating their house with lots of lovely VE Day decorations. Much more fun than doing schoolwork! Looks beautiful!

Steph D and family enjoyed a street party with their neighbours. Obviously, everyone stayed on their own property and observed the two meter rule. Steph and Harrison had to keep two meters away from Reece and Cornelia as they are self isolating!

Looks like there has been a lot of baking going on! Sue has made some lovely red, white and blue cakes. I bet her dog would love one of those!

Sam M got into the party spirit by decorating her table outside and look more cakes! Yum!

Glenda decorated her house with bunting and her friend made a lovely lemon drizzle cake for her and her family. What a lovely friend to have! Glenda enjoyed a walk among some beautiful bluebells. Needed to walk off the lemon drizzle cake!

Tracy put on a lovely spread for the lady next door. Enjoying a cuppa in the beautiful sunshine!

Hannah T and her family enjoyed a VE Day afternoon tea on their drive.

Emma G made a 'proper' homemade Cornish tea for their celebrations!

Stacy dressed in red, white and blue and chilled in her egg chair. Looks very relaxing!

Val H enjoyed a street party with her all her neighbours!

Jackie B decorated her garden with lots of Union Jack flags. Looks beautiful Jackie!

Bec G took on the role of Land Girl and did some digging in her garden.

Mirren's daughter, Imogen, had a wonderful time in her airplane! A Spit Fire replica! How fantastic!

And the people stayed HOME,
And read books, and listened, and rested,
and exercised, and made art, and played games,
and learned new ways of being, and were still,
And listened more deeply.
Some meditated, some prayed, some danced, some met their shadows.

And the people began to think differently.
And the people healed. And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless and heartless ways, the earth began to heal.

And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal
the earth fully, as they had been HEALED.

WORDS Kitty O'Meara | ART & TYPE April Nemeth
@littlecorboose

Here is a recipe from Elaine. This is one she made for her family over the Bank Holiday.

Look! Again no flour needed!

Enjoy!

Here is a lovely poem chosen by Gareth.

It will hopefully bring a smile to your face.

We are all in this together and hopefully we will see each other soon!

LANEY'S LARDER

Ingredients

- 1 cup of light brown sugar
- 1 cup of peanut butter
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp baking soda
- 1/2 cup of chocolate chips

Method

- Preheat oven 180 ° c
- Grease two baking sheets or line with parchment paper
- Stir together sugar, peanut butter, egg and baking soda in a bowl
- Fold in chocolate chips
- Divide cookie dough into 12 balls and place on baking sheets ( freeze 10 min if desired)
- Bake in oven until golden brown about 10-12 minutes
- Cool cookies on baking sheet for 5 minutes
- Transfer to wire rack and let cook completely for about 10 minutes
- Enjoy

